Will beer be sold, served, or consumed on publicly owned (government) property?

Yes. As in the past, these sales support the City of Red Bank's efforts at attracting residents to participate in city parade event.

Has the owner or owners' organization had a beer permit revoked, suspended, or denied in the State of Tennessee at any time? Yes_ No X . If so, specify where, when, and why.

You are required to submit all the following items with your application:

1. Non-refundable application fee of $100 ($25 fee for a city-run event) for a one-day permit
2. One form of valid photo identification.
3. TBI background check (<https://www.tn.gov/tbi/divisions/cjis-division/background-checks.html>).
4. Letter/contract of land use for the real property where the event is to be held.
5. Valid beer license/permit (issued from Hamilton County, City of Chattanooga, Red Bank, etc).
6. If the permit is issued, an acknowledgment that the permittee will abide by any directive of the Red Bank Police Department personnel.
7. Read and understand City of Red Bank, Tennessee Ordinance 21-1202, Beer Ordinance, provided with this application and also available on the City of Red Bank website at: <https://redbanktn.gov> and attest to the same by signing below:

I have received and reviewed a copy of the Red Bank Ordinances with respect to the sale or manufacture of beer. I am knowledgeable of the laws prohibiting the sale of beer to minors. I hereby certify that neither a person having at least 5% ownership interest in the Applicant nor any person to be employed in the distribution or sale of beer in the Business establishment has been convicted of any violation of the beer or alcoholic beverage laws or any crime involving moral turpitude within the past (10) years. The applicant is also aware that no permit shall issue, or any permit issued may be revoked if the business location causes traffic congestion, or interferes with schools, churches, or other places of public health, safety, and morals.

Applicant further certifies that a permit issued may be later revoked if this application is found to contain any misrepresentation of a material fact, including misrepresentation by omission.
