I have received and reviewed a copy of the Red Bank Ordinance with respect to the sale or manufacture of beer. I am knowledgeable of the laws prohibiting the sale of beer to minors. I hereby certify that, neither a person having at least a 5% ownership interest in the Applicant, nor any person to be employed in the distribution or sale of beer in the Business establishment has been convicted of any violation of the beer or alcoholic beverage laws or any crime involving moral turpitude within the past ten (10) years. Applicant is also aware that no permit shall issue or any permit issued may be revoked if the business location causes traffic congestion, or interferes with schools, churches or other places of public health, safety, and morals.

Applicant further certifies that a permit issued may be later revoked if this application is found to contain any misrepresentation of a material fact, including misrepresentation by omission.

INSTRUCTION SHEET

Permits shall be issued to the owner of the business, whether a person, firm, corporation, joint-stock company, L.L.C, or association.

A permit is only for a single location and, unless specifically restrictive, is valid for all decks, patios, and other outdoor serving areas that are contiguous to the exterior of the building, premises in which the business is located, and which exist at the date of the issuance of the permit

Where a permit holder operates two or more restaurants or other businesses within the same building, the owner may, in his or her or its discretion, operate some or all of such businesses under the same permit, provided the permit holder shall have applied for same and the permit was at that time issued for multiples locations in the same building.

A permit holder must return a permit to the City of Red Bank within fifteen (15) days of termination of the business, change in ownership, relocation of the business or change of the business name. A change in ownership occurs for a corporate owner when at least fifty percent (50%) of the stock of the corporation or other indicia of entity ownership is transferred to a new owner.
